Mouse detail: Police responded Saturday night to 84 Fairlawn on summons of Mrs. SAM GOLUB, who needed assistance to quell the mouse running around in circles inside her refrigerator.

Police put the animal on permanent cold storage. Also on the rodent side, the county health department, in a letter to the city council Monday night, said that there was no evidence of rats infesting the vacant property at Market and Hillside boulevard and that if any had been seen there, "they must have been just travelling through."

We goofed! In last week's story we said HENRY DOELGER had visited Lisbon, Spain.

Lisbon is the capital of Portugal.

Lisbon also means a sweet, light-colored species of wine, so maybe therein lies the trouble.

Find SF Man, 40, Living With B'moor Runaway Girl, 16

A 40-year-old San Francisco man is being held by police on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a 16-year-old Broadmoor girl.

The suspect, Ralph McGaughan, 560 San Jose avenue, and the girl were taken into custody by San Francisco police Wednesday. The 16-year-old, a student at Jefferson Union High school, had been missing from her home since September 20.

Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage said today that her disappearance was reported by her mother four days later.

Discovery of the teenager's whereabouts came when another missing girl, upon her return home to Daly City, admitted running away with the Broadmoor youngster.

The Daly City girl told officers that she and her friend had stayed with McGaughan for three weeks and that McGaughan and the Broadmoor teenager had intimate relations.

Chief Savage said today that the case probably will be handled by San Francisco police since the violation took place in that city.

Torrents Came But City Girds For Season Rains

The rains came in Daly City Wednesday night with violence but brief endurance, and the city's drainage facilities handled the torrents adequately, City Engineer Cyril Weiler said today.

This year, Weiler said, Daly City should be ready for the annual rainy season, long a headache to residents of Daly City's lowland areas.

Crews were at work this week cleaning out several years' accumulation of sediment in the Colma creek basin near Colma school. Additional catch basins have been added in last year's critical flood areas, such as hillside boulevard and First and Valley street.

Weiler said that in the next several weeks crews will be working steadily to clean all the city's catch basins in preparation for the seasonal downpours.

At First and Valley a major storm drain project completed this summer will prevent recurrence of last year's flooding.

A program of patching small holes in city streets to stop erosion of the pavement is also scheduled to get underway, Weiler added.

Army engineers have let bid for the dredging of the Lake Merced drain channel which handles Daly City's storm runoff. This will alleviate a serious condition that threatened to impair Daly City's drainage system.

Weiler was optimistic about this year's drainage facilities, but reminded that "You never know until the rains come."

Union To Fight Edict Barring Cop Membership

Five Daly City police officers who have taken out membership in the newly-formed Daly City Employees Union have been given notice to withdraw from the labor group by October 23 or face "disciplinary action."

According to City Manager Howard Stites, the officers are in violation of section 297 of the police rules and regulations which state that no policeman may belong to any group which might "interfere with or control" his work.

City Attorney Frank Blum, in an interpretation issued yesterday, said that the rules and regulations "definitely prohibit an officer from becoming a member of a labor union."

Union Plans Defense
Informed of the city's action, Harry Crocker, executive secretary of the Peninsula Public Employees Council, of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, declared, "we will organize our entire resources to defend any action by the city against these men."

Crocker termed action by the city manager "unwarranted." The union agent said, "It's perfectly obvious the city manager has taken an ill-considered position since he cannot know the facts without a study."

Crocker questioned the fact that the council had never opposed police officers' membership in the now defunct Daly City Employees association.

Union withdrawal cards have been issued for the five policemen, Crocker said, but explained that they will continue to be general members of the international union.

Call In High Official

One of the union's international representatives, Dan J. Seannell, is being brought to Daly City today expressly to iron out the local situation, Crocker revealed.

Police membership in the newly-formed Daly City local 919 was subject of lengthy harangue at Monday night's council meeting.

Blum submitted a nine-page report to the council on his interpretation of state law on the issue. According to Blum, who quoted from the 1947 Perez case in district court of appeals in Los Angeles, it was the council's "manifest duty" to legislate against police membership in a union organization.

To permit police to join such a labor group would be a "surrender of power, delegation of duty and relinquishment of supervision and control over public servants," according to Blum's extracts from the court ruling, which was later upheld in Supreme Court.

Council Told Land Owners 'Not Ready'

Annexation of the bay-side community hit a snag Thursday when officials of the Crocker Estate indicated they weren't ready to be included in Daly City's expansion plans.

Inclusion of a portion of the Crocker lands would be a must to bring about the annexation, since Daly City and Brisbane are not contiguous. Local officials had hoped to annex a strip of the Crocker Estate over the San Bruno mountains and through the Guadalupe valley to effect the merger.

W. F. Morton, secretary for the Estate, told Councilman Paul Hupf and City Manager Howard Stites at a meeting last week that, "We haven't yet developed plans for industry to a point where we want to be included in a city."

As of right now, Morton stated flatly that the Crocker people were "not interested" in the annexation.

Morton did say, however, that he would be willing to provide Hupf with all data on the recent Brisbane incorporation survey which was compiled by Crocker Estate.

No further meetings have been scheduled between the Crocker organization and Daly City, indicating that the Crocker Estate will not be ready for annexation for some time.

The city is currently conducting a survey of facilities in Brisbane to estimate what public works projects would be necessary if the community of 5000 persons were annexed.

Trustees Ask DA Rule On First Grader

Jefferson Elementary trustees this week are awaiting a ruling from the district attorney on the re-admission of a student to the first grade at Woodrow Wilson school after the boy was dismissed last month due to a registration error on his age.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lawrence, 598 Niantic avenue, asked trustees Wednesday night to re-admit their son to the school although he lacks 21 days of attaining the state's minimum age requirement of 5 years and 9 months for first graders.

In order to attend the first grade under state law, a child must have reached the age requirement or have attended kindergarten for one year.

The boy registered at Woodrow Wilson last month after he was mistakenly promoted to first grade upon completion of kindergarten. (Continued on Page 2)

Book DC Plumber On Narcotics Count; Plea Set Tuesday

A 23-year-old Daly City youth was booked Tuesday by local police on a charge of possession of narcotics.

The suspect, William Melville Lyman, a plumber of 6231 Mission street, is scheduled to appear for preliminary hearing in municipal court on Tuesday. Meanwhile, he is being held at the county jail in lieu of $10,000 cash or $20,000 bond bail.

Warrant for Lyman's arrest was signed a month ago by Daly City Inspector Bruno Conci. Delay in booking the plumber on the narcotics charge was due to a prior San Francisco car theft court, which was finally dropped.

According to Conci, San Francisco officers discovered a marijuana cigarette in Lyman's apartment while making a routine check in connection with the car theft. Lyman lives in the apartment with his aunt, Mrs. Reba Anderson, police said.

Vista Mar, Vista Grande Schools Go To Bid Soon

Letting of bids for construction of the Vista Del Mar and Vista Grande schools is expected within the next three weeks, Jefferson Elementary trustees reported Wednesday night after rejecting four new bids for slope stabilization at the former site.

The trustees agreed to bypass immediate Vista Del Mar slope stabilization on Architect Mario Cimpi's recommendation that the new bids were "too excessive." They rejected a bid of $50,372 last month for the same reason.

Turned down Wednesday were bids from J. C. Archibald, $50,600; Charles Berger, $49,031; B. J. Wood, $40,362 and Buz Haskins, $39,158.

Await Approval

Superintendent H. Z. Weibel said construction bids for the schools will be let after the state department of architecture approves plans for both plants. He indicated this should be forthcoming in about two weeks.

The new Vista Del Mar school on Southgate avenue, kindergarten through the sixth grade, will consist of one kindergarten, 12 classrooms, a multi-purpose room and an administration room. The Vista Grande School, Thiers and Wyandotte streets, kindergarten through the fourth grade, will contain six classrooms, a multi-purpose room and an administration room.

Meanwhile, Weibel said he has asked the district attorney for an opinion on the district's plan to buy the Bullis property on 932 Bradley drive adjacent to Vista Del Mar. The homeowners have a $25,000 claim against the district because of soil erosion difficulties on the property.

Site Confabs

District representatives met with Henry Doelger Builder Inc. Tuesday and discussed three sites. Trustees also held a closed executive session Wednesday night on the Abraham Lincoln project, plans of which were approved last week by the state division of school planning.

In addition, district representatives conferred with Chris McKee of the Zita Corporation last week on the M. Pauline Brown site and other sites in the area. Trustees approved a letter asking for a definite commitment from the McKees on a fixed formula for all site negotiations.

The trustees will meet with the city council next Tuesday night in the council chambers to discuss annexation plans. Also scheduled next Wednesday is a board study session.

Other Business

In other action Wednesday, trustees:

1. Approved expenditure of $97.06 to install a layer of Celotex to the wall between the heater room and classroom at Benjamin Franklin.

2. Authorized outlay of $633 for improvements to Colma Cafeteria refrigerator by Linford Air & Refrigeration Company.

3. Agreed to re-protest sale of alcoholic beverages at establishment on 17 San Pedro road.

4. Granted leave of absence to Robert LaCava, 7th grade Colma school instructor, for exchange work in Europe next year under conditions to be determined by superintendent.

5. Heard analysis and review of district's insurance program by Albert H. Altman of Albert M. Bender & Company and comment by broker Peter J. Markovich.

6. Rejected joint-powers agreement with North San Mateo County Sewer District.

7. Accepted low bid of Fred E. Turner Company for drapery additions at Benjamin Franklin (Continued on Page 2)

4000 Sign Dump Writ; Explain Discount Query

Petitions urging the county board of supervisors to approve the controversial Pedro Valley dump site have reached the 4000-signature mark, Daly City Scavenger President Al Sereni said today.

"Despite the fact that we have already doubled the number of signatures contained on the Coastside petitions, we will continue the drive," Sereni declared.

The petitions will be presented to the supervisors at their meeting next Tuesday when they are scheduled to review the county planning commission's denial. Application for the Daly City and Coastside Scavenger companies to operate a fill and cover dump on the Bernad ranch in Pedro Valley was turned down by planners about three weeks ago.

Petitions opposed to grant of the permit were weighed by the planners in their action. About 2000 Coastside signatures were included.

Coastside Scavengers' request to operate the disputed dump operation is scheduled to be reheard by the planners next Wednesday.

The Daly City Scavenger company has never received any benefit from discontinuance of the former 25-cent water and garbage bill discount, Mayor Joseph J. Verducci emphasized today.

The discount, which allowed residents to save 50 cents on their bi-monthly bill by forwarding payment before the 15th of the month, was discontinued by the city council last year.

Verducci explained that ending the discount allowed the city to gain approximately $20,000 without raising the tax rate. These funds are now directed towards the parks and recreation program, the mayor said.

Explanation by the mayor followed a statement by Scavenger President Al Sereni that many residents had quizzed his men on the subject. The scavengers are presently circulating petitions asking the board of supervisors to reverse the planning commission's denial of the Pedro Valley dump site permit. Petitions will be presented to the board on Tuesday.

56 BLDG. PERMITS ISSUED BY CITY DURING SEPTEMBER

Fifty-six building permits for construction valued at $336,044 were issued last month in Daly City, according to the building department.

The total includes: 38 new dwellings at a cost of $318,474; 14 dwelling alterations, $14,870; 3 signs, $1700, and one building repaired after a fire, $1000.

So far this year a total of 618 building permits have been issued here for construction amounting to $6,879,998. High month was March when permits were issued for $843,000 in construction.

FIRE PREVENTION RECORD PERFECT

Fire Prevention Week was getting the full observance in Daly City this week, as the fire department reported no property loss from fire up to press time yesterday.

Only incidents reported to the department were two minor washing machine smoke scares, caused by defective equipment, and two false alarms.

Fire Prevention Week opened Monday and continues through this Saturday.

JURY ACQUITS DC POULTRY WORKER OF CHILD MOLEST COUNT

A 27-year-old poultry worker, arrested here July 19 on a charge of molesting a teenage girl, was acquitted by a jury in municipal court Tuesday.

The jury took only 55 minutes of deliberation to free Antonio Marquez, 6207B Mission street. Marquez, who speaks only Spanish, was questioned and cross examined through an interpreter during the trial.

BOOK SF CARPENTER ON DRUNK CHARGE

A 25-year-old San Francisco carpenter was charged with drunk driving Sunday night after police said his car struck another vehicle on Alameda boulevard.

David Carl McDermott of 27 Hollywood court, San Francisco, was later released on $500 bail and is scheduled to appear in municipal court next Tuesday.

Passenger in the second car, Mrs. Marie Giordanego, 41, of 2229 San Jose avenue, San Francisco, suffered minor injuries in the accident. Driver of the auto in which Mrs. Giordanego was riding, her son Lawrence, told officers that McDermott's car struck his from behind.

ASK HEARING ON ONE-YEAR DC JOB STATUS

Proposal to cut civil service employment and promotion lists from four years to one will be heard at a public hearing before the personnel board, the city council ruled Monday night.

The council proposes that the civil service rules be amended so that the eligibility list will be in effect one year, with a one-year extension if necessary.

In other action Monday, the council:

1. Heard Arthur Brown of Bay Area Ambulance Service protest granting of city ambulance contract to any single firm.

2. Heard complaint of Blaine Glendening, 440 Bellevue, that citizens were being asked by the North San Mateo County Sanitation district to pay high costs of repairing damaged sewer lines in that area. Glendening was advised to present the problem at the next sanitation board meeting.

3. Heard Councilman Sanford Vickers protest placing of McKeon annexation hearing resolution on last agenda after the deadline had passed. "I think we should live up to our policy on agenda matters," he said.

4. Approved sales tax meeting with Daly City Chamber of Commerce November 7.

5. Approved compromise settlement of $500 offered by A. L. Kreuzberger for installation of water mains to 40 homes in the Myrtle tract in southern Daly City.

6. Established bond for director of finance at $50,000.

7. Accepted street improvements in Myrtle tract and Teresa Terrace.

Charge Car Dealer With 2 Abortions

A Daly City used car dealer is scheduled to stand trial on a charge that he served as the contact man between two San Francisco women and an alleged abortionist.

George A. Baker, 44, was taken into custody at his car lot, Farmer Jones, 6801 Mission street, Tuesday night. San Francisco police, who lodge the complaint against Baker, were assisted in the arrest by Sergeant David Hanson and Officer Richard Phillips of the Daly City police force.

Picked up in Fresno the same evening was Ruth Howich, well known race horse owner who was charged with having performed the two abortions. Mrs. Howich, 54, was arrested at the Fresno county fairgrounds following the seventh race in which her horse Red Junior was the victor.

Baker, who lives at 706 Faxon street, San Francisco, is accused of receiving $50 from Mrs. Howich in each of the two abortions. Mrs. Howich's fee was $300 per operation, according to San Francisco Police Lieutenant Al Nelder.

Investigation into the alleged abortions began last June when the two women were hospitalized with complications arising from the operations, Nelder said.

Mrs. Howich and Baker were booked on charges of committing abortions and conspiracy to perform them.

DC Insurance Bids Held For Study

Five bids for furnishing insurance to Daly City were held over by the city council Monday night. Decision is expected at next Wednesday's study session.

Low bid was submitted by Myron Sebring of Farmers Insurance Group, with alternates of $11,887.18 and $12,580.64.

Other bids included: North San Mateo County Insurance Agents association (Pacific Indemnity Ins. Co., 6454 Mission, $12,390.48, $12,881.30; Callen Insurance (Pacific Indemnity), 2790 Junipero Serra boulevard, $12,643.51, $13,228.33; NSMCIAA (Fidelity Casualty Co. of New York), 6454 Mission, $17,400.32, $18,217.81; NSMCIAA (United States Fire Insurance Co.), by William Lagomarsino, 7100 Mission street, $14,641.96, $16,147.27.

cal, argued that there were hundreds of municipalities in the area who had policemen belonging to union organizations.

"I asked that you take a little time on this before you make a decision," he said.

Councilman Sanford Vickers moved for continuance but his motion died for lack of second. Later Councilman Michael De Bernardi made the same motion and it was passed unanimously.

Stites asked for some concrete action. "Unless you take action," he said, "I'll be forced to take cognizance of the fact that these police are members of the union in violation of the rules and regulations."

"I intend to enforce the rules unless told otherwise by the council."

Vickers said, "I think it looks like an iron-hand deal the way we're doing this. Are we going to imperil the whole police department?"

Vickers, on the outs in recent weeks with the majority of the council, then criticized Mayor Joseph Verducci for failure to send him Blum's report on the union question.

"If you can't attend the meetings that's not my fault," snapped back the mayor.

"But the decent thing to do would have been to mail it," countered Vickers. "I was excused from the last meeting."

Councilman Paul Hupf expressed himself emphatically against police membership in the union, but said he "hesitated to draft a motion at this time."

In the interim between now and October 22 when the council will vote on whether the officers can belong to a union, the policemen still face the ultimatum to withdraw from the union because of the section in the rules and regulations.

Oratory Is Muffled As Joe Says Go

A few moments of unusual harmony between tavern keeper George Kirchhubel and the city council went awry Monday night when Kirchhubel was booed out of the chambers in company of Police Chief Roland Petrocchi.

Kirchhubel, a fixture in the council chambers every Monday night, first berated the council for not granting him seven cab permits. This issue concluded without serious damage to either side. Kirchhubel then asked if the council would help him in his efforts to secure permits from San Francisco to operate inter-urban cabs.

Mayor Joseph Verducci said the tavern owner's proposal was worth exploring, and Councilman Paul Hupf said he would be glad to talk the matter over with Kirchhubel. Kirchhubel offered a profuse, "Thank you, sir."

But later in the meeting Kirchhubel arose to intermittently argue several points while the council was in debate.

"If you interrupt once more you will not be allowed to stay in the council chambers," said Verducci angrily.

A few minutes later Kirchhubel entered the forensics again. "Will you please leave the chambers," Verducci asked. "I will not," was Kirchhubel's reply.

The mayor then summoned Petrocchi, who escorted the frustrated orator out of the chambers. As he left, Kirchhubel muttered to Petrocchi, "What's your handicap chief?"

CITY PLANNERS OK NEW CHURCH ON LOS OLIVOS

City planners Tuesday night approved an application from the Assembly of God Church, 1006 Hanover street, for a use permit to build a new church on the corner of Los Olivos and Los Banos avenues.

Pastor T. F. Sandry told THE RECORD construction would begin in December or early January.

The planning commissioners also reviewed a letter from City Attorney Frank Blum to City Manager Howard Stites outlining preliminary steps necessary in the annexation of the Zanone property to Daly City. Blum indicated that City Engineer Cyril Weiler already has filed a certificate indicating that there are less than 12 registered voters in the territory as required under annexation terms. The city attorney also advised that annexation specifications should be submitted to the county planning commission and written notice of the proposed annexation should be mailed to the board of supervisors 20 days prior to the first public hearing on the matter November 12.

In other action, the planners:

1. Approved an application for fence height variance submitted by James L. Vizzard, 75 Cliffside drive, and John E. Burman, 71 Cliffside drive.

2. Postponed consideration of fence height variance applications submitted by G. J. Roullier, 1361 South Mayfair avenue; Albert Faraola, 1417 South Mayfair, and Lee Calcagno, 1409 South Mayfair.

3. Approved petition of Van Suts Corporation for rezoning the property at 2159 Junipero Serra from C-1 to C-2.

4. Approved petition of Frank Gigli for rezoning Lot 5, Block 2, Knowles subdivision, from R-3 to C-1.

5. Approved abandonment of utility easement between Southgate and Ocean Shore as requested by Henry Doelger Builder Inc.

Nat'l Guard Armory Burglarized Of $62

National Guard armory, 1001 Market street, was broken into Friday night by thieves who took $62 from a cash box in the captain's desk.

Police said the securely locked building was entered by forcing open a double door which was locked by six sliding bolts and a wooden bar. Officers said the culprits used an axe to effect the entry.

Once inside, the thieves ransacked desks and littered the floor with papers.

The $62 was taken from inside a cash box which was kept locked inside the desk of Captain J. P. Creighton Jr., commanding officer.

The cash box and axe, tossed underneath the building's porch, were later found by police.

Broadmoor Cops To Arrest Trio For Motel Stickup

Broadmoor police this week issued warrants for the arrest of three San Francisco youths who are among a six-man gang being held for the armed robbery of Bob's Motel in Colma three weeks ago.

Chief Ray Savage said Mrs. Bernita Theo, motel manager, positively identified the ringleader, John Almares, 20, and Paul Sherman and George Tom, both 19, from a police lineup Saturday at the Hall of Justice in San Francisco.

Almares was silent when questioned by Broadmoor police after Mrs. Theo claimed he was the one who struck her during the $45 stickup on September 22. San Francisco police last week arrested six suspects in the robbery and are holding them pending investigation of other charges, Savage indicated. Jailed along with Almares, Sherman and Tom are Dan Lenschmidt and Don Dill, both 21, and George W. Smith, 25. All but Dill and Smith are parolees of the California Youth Authority.

Almares, Sherman and Tom told authorities they were unemployed and listed their addresses as being in the tenderloin district of San Francisco.

1950 BULLDOZER IS OLDER THAN THEY THOUGHT—NO DEAL

Reversing their offer made a few days earlier, the city council Monday night decided not to purchase a used bulldozer for $3400.

Last Wednesday, on advice of City Manager Howard Stites, the council agreed to purchase the used equipment without calling for competitive bids because the dozer was cited as an "excellent" buy.

Monday night a letter from Stites asked that the council follow recommendation of Engineer Cyril Weiler to reject purchase of the equipment.

Stites said that he had based his decision to purchase the equipment on the understanding that it was a 1950 model. Further investigation disclosed that it was built in the 1940s, he declared.

WEIGH THE PLAIN FACTS TUESDAY

Next Tuesday the county board of supervisors will hear an appeal from the Daly City Scavenger Co. asking that they be granted use permit to operate a fill and cover garbage disposal site near Pedro Valley.

Last month the county planning commission, in action that was described as "capricious and arbitrary," voted unanimously against granting the permit, mainly because they were faced with petitions containing names of 2000 protesters from the Coastside.

The planners decision was made virtually without benefit of debate from the proponents of the dump site, disregarding the needs of 40,000 north San Mateo county residents. The emotional tempest that caused 2000 Coastsideers to affix their signatures to a petition also infected the planners thinking.

This is not planning, it is politics. And if the supervisors should reverse this decision solely because the Daly City Scavenger Co. has accumulated 4000 signatures favoring the dump site, this would not be good government, albeit there's strength in numbers. By simple arithmetic, 4000 as opposed to 2000 is much more the Vox Populi.

The issue should be weighed on plain facts. And the plain facts are that Daly City is faced with imminent loss of a place to dump its garbage.

The Pedro Valley site sits remote from any residential area and under proper utilization of widely-accepted fill and cover methods, the dump would not be a blight on the aesthetics of the area—as the present dump on Skyline is now.

Disposal of garbage is a major health problem, caprices of the planning commission notwithstanding.

Let's hope that the board of supervisors treats the problem with the consideration it demands.

Village Notes By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

Since we've been away: Hiltons' house on Maddux is a nice pink. Bairds' on Steward a striking gray, and Logans on 90th a new green and white. . . . Warren Brown's new addition to his Stewart Street home is coming along at a great rate. . . . We've heard that Jean Bertkins' kitchen, Stewart again, is a gay yellow and brown (and we can say ours is finished!) . . . Four young Villagers are ultra-special members of the Village Play School: Mark Seaman (Stewart), Pamela McClusky (87th Street), and Jeff and Gary Lawrence (87th Street) . . . Ann Jones, who used to live with her sister, Mary Ellen Tanner, on Garden Lane, now has her own home as Mrs. Gary Rowe. The Rowes have an apartment on Sullivan, and both are attending State college. Ann told us all about her wedding at home in Mariposa; it was a white wedding with bridesmaids in blue, and family and friends all around to share the happiness. (The wedding pictures were charming). There was a two week honeymoon at Lake Crescent, Washington, before Ann and Gary came back to this area. . . . We've seen the SS United States, and immense it is, too, and we've been in Texas, finally! Exactly 40 minutes in the Dallas airport!

We're indebted to Elsie MacLaren of MacArthur for this one. She noticed, on Garden Lane, a little old car, much the worse for wear, with "HIS" written across the back in white letters. Directly in front of it was a spanking shiny new model. Nothing was written on it, but it fairly screamed "HERS!"

Future Crop

New kindergartners of 1961: Eric James, who belongs to Herb and Nonette Swedberg of 90th street. He also has a brother, Mark, weighed 6 lbs., 14 oz., and shared a birthday with Tommy Helmer, Randy Green and Jean Bullis. Tommy is Thomas Muriello and weighed 8 lbs., 8 oz. He lives with Ash, Dolores, Susie and Jimmy Helmer on Maddux. Randy is short for Randall David, with 8 lbs., 7 oz. to his credit, and Larry, Gert, Phil, Mini, Russ and Shelley Green also to his credit. Last but not least, and we beg the lady's pardon for not having introduced her first, is Miss Jean Adele Bullis, 7 lbs., 13 oz., who lives with father, Fred, and mother, Lavonne, on Stoneyford. She is a first baby! More new kindergartners of 1961: Michael Anthony Thiemann, 7 lbs., 7 oz., who is a Village Lane newcomer. He joins mother Florence, father Henry, and tribe Barbara, Patty, Judy, Sandra and Joey. . . . Mary Eileen Crofton, long-awaited girl for Eileen and John, and special somebody for a brothers Tommy, Dicky, Jackie and Philip over Midway direction. She weighed 7 lbs., 13 oz. . . . The weight's the same, but this time it belongs to George Samuel Unthank, new brother for Eugenia and Kitty, and new son of Frances and Edgar. The Unthinks are Thornhillers.

Foothill Pioneers

Darlene and Walter Brand, one of the first Foothill families, will be leaving one of these days as soon as their new house is completed. They are building a home at Woodside, near Searls Lake, and think they'll be in it, rains and supplies willing, in the early spring. Darlene remembered they had their wedding party in the Foothill house before they even actually moved in! The Brands recently treated themselves to a week in Mexico City, with a side trip to Taxco.

This and That: Happy birthday to Louvaine's Bea Gantert. . . . and to McArthur's Timmy Farley. Timmy turned five, with friends Randy and Gail Tiner, Albert Lieske and Craig Price to help celebrate the Big Day. . . . Sorry to hear that Lorena Williams' mother, Mrs. Cora Smith, has been ill, but glad to report she is feeling much better. . . . Charlotte and Dorie Lynn McCall of Sweetwood were flower girls in a wedding recently. They wore blue, with pink and blue flowers, and were beautiful indeed, as well as very proud and glad to be a part of such an important occasion. . . .

Special Notes of Interest Polly McGuire is giving free classes in storytelling at the Wawona Clubhouse from 1 to 3 on Fridays. The classes start October 19, and will be well worth attending, for Polly is one of the bay area's top storytellers, and a charming person to boot. Interested people can check with us. . . .

Adult School Sets Two New Classes

Two more adult classes opened this week at the Jefferson Adult School.

A class in Interior Decoration, taught by Don Carlson, will meet Mondays at 7:30 in room 6 at the high school. Major emphasis for the next few months will be on Christmas decorations, according to Carlson. Materials commonly found around the home will be used as starting points to make the decorations. After the holiday season the course will feature methods of improving and beautifying the home.

The second new class is Driver Training. Thanks to the cooperation of the local automobile merchants, two dual-control cars will be available to the district for behind-the-wheel instruction.

The course will run for 20 hours, twelve of which will be in Driver Education, covering the legal aspects, and eight hours behind the wheel. A fee of $12 is charged for the course.

Registrations can be made by calling Mr. Martin, director of the project, at PL. 5-8661. Registrations are still being taken for the Posture and Exercise course, given Wednesday mornings at 10:00 a.m. and Wednesday evenings at 6:30.

FIREMEN TRAVEL SHORT DISTANCE TO VACANT LOT BLAZE

Firemen had only 450 feet to travel when a fire broke out in a vacant lot on Lake Merced boulevard early Wednesday morning.

Chief Elmer Kennedy said today that the blaze apparently was begun by pranksters who spotted a pile of junk in the lot. The heap of building material had been deposited on the lot earlier in the day by workmen at Joe's of Westlake, a restaurant presently under construction.

An apartment resident called the station, which is situated 450 feet from the scene of the fire, to report the blaze.

Officers listed the near victim as Florence Young of 291 Westbrook avenue. The woman swallowed an overdose of sleeping pills, police said.

Daly City Woman Okay After Suicide Attempt

A 27-year-old local woman was pronounced in satisfactory condition today after police said she attempted suicide Wednesday night.

Officers listed the near victim as Florence Young of 291 Westbrook avenue. The woman swallowed an overdose of sleeping pills, police said.

YOUNGSTER INJURED WHEN HIT BY CAR

An eight-year-old boy suffered minor injuries Wednesday night when he ran from behind a parked auto and was struck by another car.

The youngster, Terry Piccardo of 185 West Moltke street, was taken to Junipero Serra hospital by his mother.

Driver of the auto, Peter Maffei, 39, a butcher of 125 West Moltke street, was not cited.

Arrest SSF Salesman On Drunk Count Here

A 30-year-old South San Francisco salesman was charged with being drunk and in an auto early Saturday morning after police said they spotted him in a parked car at South Mayfair avenue and Park Plaza drive.

John Joseph Gilligan Jr. of 3 Emerald Court, South San Francisco, was later released on $50 cash bail. He is scheduled to appear in municipal court next Tuesday.

the same time, it's natural to suppose they might share a party, and that's what Maddux dwellers Susan Swanson and Karen Johnson did. They had a hot dog barbecue down at San Bruno park, complete with a large sheet birthday cake, and invited Linda Hartman, Susan Helmer, Chrissie Mitchell, Paula Baumgartner, Carol Goodner, Gail Smith, Peg Mahoney, Kathy Wilson, Linda Swanson, Nina Johnson and Jimmy Swanson along to share the good time. Several parents were in attendance, too!

Jewelry parties are the rage at present. Bette Cheda gave one up on Bradley, and then Billie Buchanan down on Manila got into the swing of things by inviting Mary Jane O'Brien, Marge Musto, Meredith Orloff, Bea Gantert, Ann Andro, Mrs. Lacey, Eileen Crofton and Doris Cunningham to one at her house. Demonstrator Hilda Stettler, Midway's best, shared the hostess job with Billie.

HONORED RECENTLY as leaders in the nation's monument business were Valerio Fontana (right) and his son, Elio, of the Fontana Monument Company of Colma.

Valerio Fontana, who founded the firm here 35 years ago, and Elio, designer-manager, are shown examining a huge block of granite at the company factory across from the Italian Cemetery. They were praised in the August issue of "Monumental News-Review" for outstanding work in the industry.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

ODDS AND ENDS . . . a report on the opera season to date, news of the only Bay Area concert by Mantovani and his orchestra, and, if we have room, a pat on the back for film actor William Holden for his kind words re the taste-level of the much maligned American mass audience.

"Manon Lescaut"—This year Puccini's tale of an appealing but wayward maid competed with that social phenomenon known as opening night. Despite Boerling's valiant efforts, the opera lost out to the other half of the double bill. A pity, as it was the great tenor's only appearance before the regular series audience.

"Flying Dutchman"—Leonie Rysanek made an impressive American opera debut in the role of Senta. Hans Hotter repeated his previous triumph as the legendary Dutchman. You might say opera returned to top billing with flying colors.

New Boris
"Falstaff"—Still fails to arouse our enthusiasm, although we liked it a bit better than our first hearing in 1948. It's difficult to say whether this was the result of our musical growth in the interim or a better choice in casting.

"Boris Godunov"—With a new Boris, the opera restored to its original language and new settings, this promise to be one of the big nights. Boris Christoff pleased the most critical ears, but one goes to the opera to see as well as hear. The kindest thing one can say about the new settings is to say nothing. Maybe they'll just fade away.

"Francesca da Rimini"—Not great, but very satisfying. Should be retained in the standard repertoire, although something should be done to vary the settings from act to act.

Popular Orchestra
"Così Fan Tutti"—An expert cast turning in an exquisite cameo of a performance, one of the greatest of this or any season. And from one who prefers the tragic operas, that's praise!

If you'd prefer something a bit lighter than opera and a bit more at the popular price level, Mantovani and his orchestra, who will appear at the Civic Auditorium Sunday afternoon, November 4, should be just what you're looking for.

This will be the first West Coast tour for this Venice-born Londoner and his men, whose easy-to-listen-to style is already well-known to local audiences, thanks to his numerous popular recordings.

Sorry, no room for Willie Holden. Better luck next week. "Juno and the Paycock," the Sean O'Casey dramatic commentary on Irish life during their revolutionary period, will play its final performances Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. at the Little Theatre of San Francisco State College. It is the opening attraction for the first subscription season ever to be presented at State College.

Of special interest to local residents will be the performance of Lorraine Bergstrom, featured in the cast in a major supporting role. Lorraine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albin H. Bergstrom, 130 Peoria Street, Daly City. She is a senior at San Francisco State and is a graduate of Jefferson High.

Tickets for individual performances are $1.25 and Season Subscriptions may be purchased for only $5.00.

Nation-wide honors have been bestowed upon Elio A. Fontana and Valerio Fontana Monument Company of Colma.

The 35-year-old local firm and its 37-year-old manager were featured in the August issue of "Monumental News-Review" magazine, international "bible" of the industry.

The publication cited Elio as "an outstanding memorialist-designer," and its two-page spread lauded the company for "pioneering drastic changes in accepted customs and designs."

Lands Progress

The magazine praised the Fontana firm for new ideas, advanced sales techniques and up-to-date machinery. It marked the first time a West Coast monument firm has been so honored.

Valerio Fontana, 69, the firm's founder and sculptor, supervises all operations at the company's ultra-modern factory across from the Italian Cemetery in Colma. His son, Elio, does all the designing and serves as "front man" in the main office at 7600 Mission street.

Family Tradition

A fourth generation memorialist, Valerio came to this country at the age of 19 after learning the rudiments of the profession in the quarries of Sardinia and Egypt. Before establishing roots here he gained fame for sculpturing at the World Fair of 1915 and on the San Francisco City Hall and Public Library buildings a year later.

Elio, a 1938 Jefferson graduate, learned the business "from the ground up." He worked at the plant during high school days, then became a key employee after spending four years as a draftsman in Army intelligence during World War II.

Fresh Techniques

"The reason we're out in front is because we try to give our customers a fresh approach in monument design," commented Elio.

ADMIRING ONE of the V. Fontana Monument Firm's many display monuments are the firm's designer-manager Elio Fontana and his sister, Gloria, office manager of the local es-

By rough comparison, you might say it's somewhat like the automobile industry. We attempt to keep up with the times in new styles, getting away from the somber and unattractive patterns of the past while still maintaining classical beauty. Of course, we're limited by cemetery restrictions on size, but all in all, we emphasize the unique."

Elio explained that the monument business requires a combination of old-fashioned know-how and new techniques to satisfy the needs of each customer. He reminded that the task of preparing monuments, involving polishing, carving and designing demands top craftsmanship.

Veteran Staff

The Fontana factory, built five years ago at a cost of $100,000, is staffed with a veteran crew of artisans and is stocked with the latest precision equipment.

The men behind the firm's accomplishments include polisher Pietro Masnada, carver-sculptor John Blake, stone cutter Joseph Cholewa, blacksmith Raymond Chrisman and plant helper Felix Luttrall. Elio's sister, Gloria, is office manager, and salesman Elmer Harris, rounds out the staff.

Elio said the company, serving all local cemeteries, prepares monuments that range in cost from $150 to $1000 for average jobs to $20,000 for bigger projects. Average-sized monuments are contracted on a three-month basis, although actual processing takes about 45 days. The firm imports topgrade granite from all over the world, while marble decorations are obtained exclusively from Italy.

Huge Display

Fontana's stock of more than 1000 display monuments, the largest in nine Western states, run the myriad in design and technique. A typical example of the company's range is a recently prepared monument for the former mayor of Chinatown inscribed by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek. The Fontana firm accomplished the feat by getting the Nationalist leader to forward a copy of his own lettering from Formosa.

Broadmoor Team Advances In S.F. Midget Tourney

A six-hit shutout by hurler Bruce Hix kept the BYA Midgets in the thick of the San Francisco Midget League tournament last Saturday as the local nine stopped South Sunset, 5-0.

Hix fanned 11 and exhibited perfect control as Randy Hix team picked up its first victory in the double-elimination affair at Margaret Hayward playground.

Big blows for the winners were a double by Hix and singles by Billy Castor and Terry Ward.

The BYA Midgets dropped their tournament opener earlier last week when Larry Brocker of St. Phillips chalked up a no-hitter and struck out 15. Final score was 3-1.

Hix' youngsters swing into action again tonight (Thursday) against the PALS of San Mateo on the Hayward diamond. Starting time is 8 o'clock.

Fourteen teams entered the tournament last week.

CSM FOOTBALLERS EYE SECOND WIN IN RICHMOND GO

College of San Mateo's gridgers, breaking into the victory column last week with a 15-6 conquest of Sacramento JC, move to Richmond Saturday afternoon for their second league battle against West Contra Costa JC.

The Mateans tripped Sacramento on Gerry Meyer's 85-yard ramble, quarterback Don Covarelli's line plunge and an 18-yard field goal by Bill Barraclough.

West Contra Costa dropped its opening loop encounter to Modesto JC, 20-7.

Podesta Horseholders Halt Portola Streak

Podesta Nursery stopped a 53-game Portola Cubs winning streak last Saturday as Cornell Holmes hurled a three-hitter to nip the loop leaders, 3-1.

The win put the Podestans into a tie for leadership in the Class D circuit.

Timely hits were supplied by Don Harris, Dixie Howell, Gary

HILLSDALE TRIPS RAM FROSH-SOPHS IN OPENER, 12-6

Westmoor High's Frosh-soph gridmen suffered a 12-6 loss in their North PAL debut last week against Hillsdale down south.

Rod Losberger's Rams battled their hosts on even terms in the scoreless first half but succumbed to two sustained marches in the final two quarters.

Hillsdale opened the scoring in the third quarter when Dave Bean capped a 50-yard drive by plunging over from the two. The clinching Hillsdale tally came on Rich Stagner's five-yard crack in the fourth quarter.

Westmoor retaliated in the same period as Roger Webb knifed over from two yards out. Ed Dowdall's 18-yard-end sweep put the Rams in position for Webb's smash for six points.

Losberger, claiming his lads looked "a bit ragged," nevertheless was impressed with their first outing. He praised the work of tackle Gary Gross and linebacker Rich Blakemore.

The young Ram mentor drilled his gridgers hard earlier this week in preparation for today's clash with Capuchino in San Bruno at 3:15. The Mustang Frosh-Sophs are rated with Burlingame as co-favorites for the championship.

Losberger lost the service of Webb for the season when the halfback said he was moving from Daly City. Dowdall replaces him at left half.

Only other lineup change off last week's game will find Gross at right tackle instead of Bill Keckler. Losberger also will alternate quarterbacks Jim Hieck and Brad Turcott.

Podesta and Jack Fuerts of the winners.

John Suza's nifty four-hitter Sunday gave the Nurserymen a 6-2 decision over Duffy's Corner, putting the Podesta nine in front of the Sunday loop.

Howell again paced the triumph with three for four at the plate.

San Mateo Downs Westmoor, Jeff In Cross Country

Coach Ernie Rabera's Westmoor cross-country varsity dropped their North PAL lid-lifter to San Mateo's harriers last week as the Bearcats won out, 15-49. The Mateans also beat Jefferson's varsity, in a non-league meet run simultaneously, 25-35.

Indian Andy Estigoy established a new course record in the three-way varsity affair covering 1.9 miles by finishing ahead of the pack in 10:27.2. Teammate Al Davila took second in the 26-man field with a clocking of 10:33.

The Ram Frosh-Sophs sparkled in their debut, dumping their Bearcat counterparts, 21-31. Sophomore Dave Dunbar, who looms as one of the best in the league, shattered the course record as he won the long-haul in 11:26.5. SM's Bruce Dalrymple copped second and Rams Phil Anderson, Rich Gomez and Mike Young trailed in that order.

The Westmoor and Jefferson harriers met Carlmont's trackmen Tuesday and face Capuchino tomorrow (Thursday). Jefferson's squad, which lacks a coach, is competing unofficially until the PAL finals.

LION CAGERS DUMP WESTMOOR FIVES IN EXHIBITION TILTS

Lincoln of San Jose's lightweights handled Westmoor's cagers a double loss last Thursday in an exhibition twin bill.

Bryon Van Akstyn's 10's lost out, 26-21, while the 20's, despite a 24-point outburst by Ross Holmgren, were shaded, 32-29.

Dick Reese pumped in 11 points for the Ram 10's, who couldn't catch up after trailing at the half, 14-12. Linder led the wee Lions with 10.

Only two other 20's found the range for Westmoor in the second tilt. Bill Burnham got 4 and Charles English 1. Lincoln held the upper hand at intermission, 18-14. Guard Anti was Lion high pointer with 13.

Westmoor's quints resume North PAL play tomorrow (Thursday) against Mike Orlich's Jefferson fives.

JEFF FROSH-SOPHS LOSE LEWKOWITZ IN 40-0 SETBACK

Manhandled 40-0 by Burlingame last week, Jefferson's Frosh-Sophs attempt to redeem themselves today in a 3 p.m. battle with San Mateo on the Bearcat gridiron.

Key cause of last week's debacle was the loss of quarterback Ed Lewkowicz, who broke his wrist in the first quarter and is out for the year.

Coach Bob Watt, while praising a "fine" Burlingame team, said his squad couldn't get rolling after trailing 19-0 at halftime.

Roger Stahl and Mike Wills are neck and neck for the vacated quarterback job. Watt commented earlier this week.

Others in the starting lineup against the Bearcats are ends Pete Garcia and Felix Valdez, tackles John Dean and Bob Nielson, guards John Carpenter and Steve Bond and center George Crist. Rounding out the backfield are seatbacks Jim Ahern and Len Lamendola and fullback Jerry Kennedy.

SAN MATEO CAGERS GRAB DOUBLEHEADER FOR JEFF QUINTS

San Mateo's lightweight cagers took a pair from Mike Orlich's Jefferson fives last week, the Bearcat 10's winning 30-25, and the 20's romping, 50-23.

Center Gordy Tyndico stole scoring honors in the 10's feature with 17 points. Curt Bleye and Cappy Hurst got 8 for the 'Cats.

Ron Howell's 10 points led the Bearcats to an easy victory in the 20's tilt. Roy Reitz collected 11 for Jeff.

Orlich's 10's are 1-1 for the season, having thumped Burlingame, 39-20, two weeks ago. The 20's are winless in two loop starts, having lost to the Panthers, 38-26.

The Jeff lightweights met Westmoor's quints yesterday in the third week of North PAL play.

The Ram 10's stopped Half Moon Bay, 31-20, in their opener two weeks ago, while the 20's lost a close, 27-26.

Melani Again Heads Pushers In 3rd 'Wheelbarrow Derby'

Daly City pub owner John Melani, a two-time loser in World Series wagering, and his eight-man team roll up their sleeves Sunday morning in the third annual "Great Wheelbarrow Derby" at South San Francisco.

Having lost their bet on Brooklyn in the Series, Melani's National League "squad" must push their nine American League rivals over a 1 1/2-mile course starting in front of Melani's bar at 115 Grand avenue. The fun begins at 10:30 o'clock.

Melani, who had to push home-towner Del Fohl last year when he captured the American loopers, draws the toughest grind Sunday.

The 274-pound bar owner's passenger will be Bill Hunter, 308-pound truck driver who heads the American League team.

"Too bad I gave up on the Yanks after last year," bemoaned Melani, 19 Garibaldi street, as he witnessed the Dodger downfall Wednesday morning.

To complicate the pushing job, the losers have to stop and buy the winners a drink at every bar en route.

Melani's team is composed of Herman Strachan and Eddy Zelinski of Daly City; Ted Ott, Harper Murray and Ted Giles of South City; Phil Murray and Obe Obe-muer of San Bruno, and Frank Conrad of San Francisco.

Riding along with Hunter will be Walter Stalers of Daly City; Charles McMahon, Frank Madale, David Franzio and Charles Chavez of South City; Bill Williams of Sharp Park; Del Bryning of Burlingame, and Charles Rios of San Francisco.

"Too bad I gave up on the Yanks after last year," bemoaned Melani, 19 Garibaldi street, as he witnessed the Dodger downfall Wednesday morning.

Originating at Melani's bar, the wheelbarrow course follows Grand avenue to Airport boulevard, rolls along four blocks on Airport to Lux avenue, then three blocks up Lux, back to Linden and thence to Grand again.

Luck Of The Irish Baffles Duffy's Nine, Drop 2 Tilts

Duffy's Corner nine, sporting Kelly green shirts and caps, began to wonder about the luck of the Irish last weekend after losing two of three games.

Lowell Creighton's youngsters ran into an Irishman named Mike McCoy of Larry Barrett Tires Saturday morning at Marchbanks, and went down swinging, 6-2, in a well-played tilt.

Saturday afternoon with Irishmen Sullivan and Burke in the lineup, the Duffymen bounced South Sunset, 5-1, on the West Sunset diamond. Podesta Nursery, claiming no one from the Emerald Isle, took Duffy's horsehiders into camp Sunday at Marchbanks, 6-2.

McCoy held Creighton's crew to five hits in the Saturday opener and fanned 11 while walking five. Mike Lanthier, losing flinger, walked seven and gave up two hits before moving to the outfield in the third inning.

Terry Christman accounted for two of Duffy's runs with a double and finished the tilt with three for four.

Billy Ludwigen checked South Sunset on three hits Saturday afternoon and was tough in the clutches. Mike Kennedy got two for three and drove across three runs.

The Duffymen pulled off a smooth twin killing in the second inning. Billy Hix to Mike Roval to Barry Krohn.

John Souza handcuffed Creighton's team Sunday on five hits to give the Nursery nine its first triumph over Duffy's legions in 10 encounters. Podesta thus made it two wins over the weekend, having stopped the loop-leading Portola Cubs on Saturday.

Daly City Braves Drop League Bow To Jewelers, 4-3

Daly City's Braves dropped their first start in the San Francisco Junior Baseball Association's C League Sunday by a 4-3 score to the Azevedo Jewelers nine.

The Braves were handicapped when two of their regulars decided to call it quits for the season.

Dennis Draper was the losing hurler, allowing two earned runs, six hits and two walks.

Lou Bevelouqui got two hits for the Braves and Draper collected a double. Ronnie Townsend, Ron Cook and Paul Clima each stroked singles.

Centerfielder Jerry Starr came up with a run-saving catch for the Braves in the third inning, and Kelly Oliveras accounted for a double play in the sixth by spearing a liner and firing to second to catch the runner.

The Braves tangle with two rival Sarto AC Sunday in a league game starting at 2 o'clock in Seals stadium.

Jittery Panthers Deadlock Jeff, 0-0; Revived Tribe Faces Frisky Bearcats

Indians Muff 5 Breaks, Survive Field Goal Try

Frustrated in a 0-0 deadlock with Burlingame last week, Jeff's Indians hope they have the proverbial "bad one" out of their system as they travel tonight (Friday) to battle once-victorious San Mateo. Kickoff for the crucial test is 8 o'clock on the Burlingame field.

Coach Joe McGrath, attributing the Indian-Panther standoff to Jeff's lack of a warmup game, thinks the Tribe is ready to make its move for the North PAL title.

Bearcats Tough
In San Mateo, the Indians meet another darkhorse, who sounded a warning Friday by upsetting South City, 19-13.

The Indians blew no less than five scoring breaks in the first half of the Burlingame fracas, then had to buckle down after the intermission to stave off two deep Panther drives.

Socked around badly by Jeff's bruising forwards in the first two quarters, the Panthers managed two nerve-busting marches as they almost hit the scoreboard in the final 30 minutes.

Miss Field Goal
Burlingame missed a 17-yard field goal on the last play of the game after a last-ditch drive paved by Ted Farley's interception of an Ed Leveroni pass. The Indians also halted the Panthers on the Jeff 2 in the third quarter. Greg Stikes set up the march by pitching 24 yards to end Jim Scheuermann.

Jeff's first opportunity came on the second play of the game as Steve Canty grabbed a stikes' aerial and the Indians moved into Burlingame territory. But the McGrathmen were forced to kick after losing on two runs and a penalty.

Moments later, Stikes fumbled and Jeff took over on the Panther 27. Sonny Martinez got to the 17 on two hauls, but the threat died as three Leveroni pitches fell incomplete and the Panthers were saved on downs.

Still Short
Two plays later, Stikes again bobbled the pigskin with Ron Moon recovering for Jeff on the 14. Leveroni advanced for 5, misfired on a pass, lost a yard, and Martinez rambled to the 6, one yard shy of a first down.

Just before the end of the first quarter Martinez stole a Stikes' toss and Jeff was in business on the Burlingum 27. The Panthers dug in, however, and stopped the Tribe on the 10 as Jeff's backs again were tyrimied.

On the next series of downs, Jeff grabbed Ron Hanawalt's fumble on the Burlingum 25 and looked like money in the bank by making a first down on the 10. But the Panthers yielded only 6 yards on 4 Indian thrusts and nervously took possession in the shadow of the goal posts.

Statistics Edge
McGrath's forces posted a slim edge in the statistics, leading 9-8 in first downs and in net yardage, 141-137. Paul Tapia and Leveroni connected on only 5 of 22 aerials for 40 yards, while Stikes garnered 80 yards with 6 for 15.

Martinez, a slick junior, was the lone student in the lethargic Indian backfield, romping for 77 yards on 19 carries. His performance was tops in North PAL action last week from a standpoint of yards gained.

Jeff's All-PAL end candidate, Tom Cloutier, caught 4 passes for 37 yards and played his usual steady game.

Twin Threats

San Mateo will throw at double-barrel offense at the Indians tomorrow night. Coach Bob Mills has one of the loop's best passers in QB Barry McCarron and a punishing fullback in Phil Luga. A transfer from Serra, Mainstays up front include two quick tackles, John Ireland and Jerry Chambers. Highly-favored Capuchino, who breezed past Carlmont Friday in their 14-0, 20-0, meets Washington of San Francisco tomorrow in an exhibition at San Bruno.

Other Tilts
In other North PAL action tomorrow, Hillsdale makes its debut against hapless Carlmont in San Mateo and Burlingame shoots for its first win at South City in a night affair. Hillsdale picked up its second exhibition victory Friday by topping Serra, 33-20.

Key clash in the South PAL finds contender Menlo-Atherton dueling Palo Alto for the top spot. The Bears upended defending champion Lincoln last week, 19-14, while the Vikings coasted past San Jose, 28-0.

Willow Glen hosts Lincoln and Sequoia entertains San Jose in a scrap for the basement. Willow Glen bopped Sequoia last week, 18-0.
